

ERIC LEHNER

DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Eric's photographic journey started with an analogue stills camera and countless hours spent in a darkroom developing black and white negatives and photographs. He then made the transition to moving images, studying film history and aesthetics at UNIL in Lausanne and then the practical side of Filmmaking at LIFS in London.

Eric is an accomplished Director of Photography with a varied portfolio including Film, TV, Commercial, Music Promo and Corporate work. He is well versed in both analogue and digital formats and can navigate different genres with ease. Eric has a passion for visual storytelling, creating images that serve the story and resonate with audiences, he enjoys developing strong collaborations.

Eric is based and settled in London. As a Swiss national he can also work in the EU without any requirement for a work visa. He is willing to work internationally and speaks fluent German, French and Italian.
